U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On August 31, 2012, Jaime Damian Rangel-Ceja was sentenced in the Eastern District of Washington by the Honorable Rosanna Malouf Peterson, U.S. District Judge, to 135 months custody, followed by 5 years of supervised release after pleading guilty to possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance.

Mr. Rangel-Ceja arrived at the Spokane Residential Reentry Center (RRC) on February 29, 2019. Mr. Rangel-Ceja disclosed to his case manager that he had no family in the Eastern District of Washington, and he submitted a relocation request to California.

On March 20, 2019, Mr. Rangel-Ceja's relocation request plan was approved by the Central District of California Probation and Pretrial Services Office.

Mr. Rangel-Ceja commenced supervision on August 19, 2019. Since Mr. Rangel-Ceja's term of supervised release, he has provided all negative drug tests and has obtained employment and housing in California.

On October 18, 2020, Mr. Rangel-Ceja admitted he traveled into Mexico without authorization. Mr. Rangel-Ceja informed his supervising officer this travel was for medical and treatment services that were provided at a cheaper price compared to what he could afford in California.

On October 21, 2020, a report was sent to the Eastern District of Washington, highlighting the alleged violation of traveling outside the district without authorization. The supervising officer respectfully recommends the Court take no formal action at this time for his unauthorized travel to Mexico.

Further, the Central District of California has requested transfer of jurisdiction of this case, therefore, appropriate paperwork will be forthcoming.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
